RESOLUTION

Aeronautics Committee

No. 3112 dated 10-11-1967.—Aeronautics plays a vital role in defence and is also important for communications. The need for maximum self-sufficiency in this field is important, and in view of the relatively small requirements, this can be achieved only by long term planning in design, development and production. It has been recommended that an Aeronautics Committee be appointed to review the entire field of aircraft and allied equipment with regard to Research, Development and Production and to advise Government on the best, quickest and most economic way of making the country self-sufficient in this field.

2. The Government have accepted this recommendation and have decided to set up an Aeronautics Committee composed as follows :—

Chairman

Shri C. Subramanian,
"Riverview", Guindy, Madras 25

Members

Dr. S. Bhagavantam,
Scientific Adviser to the Minister of Defence.

Shri S. S. Khara,
3, Eastern Canal Road
Dehra Dun (U.P.).

Dr. S. Dhawan,
Director, Indian Institute of Science,
Bangalore.

Air Marshal R. Rajaram, DFC,
Vice Chief of the Air Staff,
Air Headquarters,
New Delhi.

Air Marshal P. C. Lal, DFC,
Managing Director,
Hindustan Aeronautics Ltd.,
Bangalore

Captain G. C. Arya,
Directorate General of Civil Aviation,
New Delhi

Member-Secretary

Shri S. Krishnaswami,
Joint Secretary,
Deptt. of Defence Production.

Other persons may be co-opted by the Chairman and invited to attend particular meetings of the Committee as and when necessary. The Ministry of Tourism and Civil Aviation, Hindustan Aeronautics Limited, the Department of Atomic Energy, CSIR, the Air India and the Indian Airlines Corporation may be asked to nominate experts as their representatives who would be available to the Committee for consultations. The Committee may form Working Groups composed of Members of the Committee and experts nominated by the Ministry of Tourism and Civil Aviation etc., to study and report on specific aspects of its work.

3. The terms of reference of the Committee will be as follows :—

- To assess the requirements of the country in respect of aircraft and allied equipment.
- To survey the existing and potential sources of supply and to recommend how best indigenous sources can be tapped and capacity expanded.

- (c) To recommend measures for the planned development of aeronautics industry, including Research and Development, so that the country as a whole may become self-sufficient in this field in the shortest possible time and in the most economical manner.

4. The Committee will meet at such times and places as the Chairman may decide.

5. The Committee will submit its report as early as possible and not later than 30th April, 1968.

ORDER

ORDERED that a copy of this Resolution be communicated to :—

- (i) all State Governments and Union Territories, and
- (ii) all Ministries of the Government of India and the Planning Commission.

ORDERED also that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for general information.
